EAGLES NEST RANCH
The Thrill of the Hunt
Three eagles hunt over grass that spans the horizon while you hunt for hogs, deer, and antelope. It’s a unique experience that’s second to none. Eagles Nest Ranch is one of the oldest and most famous hunting lodges in the West and the largest hog hunt in the world. Today, it is a working Philmont Ranch and features all the excitement and adventure of the Boy Scouts of America as well as the wilderness setting of this pioneer product.

Located on Eagles Nest Ranch, The Hemingway Lodge is 60 miles northeast of Denver along the South Platte River. Large fireplaces bordered with Native American artifacts and Western art create the design format for the lodge. Ranch-grown beef, expertly prepared, followed by billiards, or just enjoying a drink and good conversation in the Western bar, often completes a day spent on the private 9-hole golf course or shooting in the field.

The adventuresome can explore the area on horseback, bicycle or on foot. Anglers can hone their craft in the private ponds, and marksman can test their aim on the trap course and hunt for a variety of upland birds with highly trained hunting dogs.

THE RIVERBEND LODGE
